R477-101-7. Code of Conduct.

(1) ALJs shall comply with the Model Code of Judicial Conduct for State Administrative Law Judges, National Association of Administrative Law Judges.

(2) In order to suit a specific agency need, an agency may make an addendum or modification to the Code of Conduct. Any such addendum or modification shall be specific to their agency. In addition, any addendum or modification to the Code of Conduct must be reviewed and approved by the Committee before being implemented. The Committee may be convened for the purpose of reviewing any proposed addendum or modification.

R477-101-8. Filing Procedure.

(1) Each agency shall include a copy of DHRM Rule R477-101 in the administrative rule materials that they provide to parties, or shall otherwise make them readily available to parties, at the commencement of administrative proceedings.

(2) An individual who alleges a violation of the Code of Conduct or otherwise has a Complaint against an ALJ may file a timely Complaint with the Department. To be timely a Complaint must be in writing and filed with the Department within 20 working days of Final Administrative Action in the matter in which the individual is an Interested Party.

(3) Complaints filed with the Department are deemed filed on the date actually received by the Department. The Department shall date-stamp all Complaints on the date received. All filing and other time periods are based upon the Department's working days.

(4) Complaints must contain specific facts and allegations of Misconduct and must be signed by the person filing the Complaint or by the person's authorized representative. R477-101-9. Investigation.

(1) Preliminary Investigation.

(a) The Department shall review all timely filed Complaints and shall, regardless of whether the allegations contained therein would constitute misconduct if true, conduct a Preliminary Investigation.

(b) If the Preliminary Investigation determines that the Complaint is untimely, frivolous, without merit, or if the Complaint merely indicates disagreement with the Respondent ALJ's decision, without further alleged Misconduct, the Complaint may be similarly dismissed without further action.

(c) If, after a Preliminary Investigation is completed, there is a reasonable basis to find Misconduct occurred, the Investigator shall initiate a Full Investigation.

(2) Full Investigation.

Within ten days after a determination to conduct a Full Investigation is made, the Investigator shall notify the Respondent ALJ that a Full Investigation is being conducted. The notice shall:

(a) inform the Respondent ALJ of the specific facts and allegations being investigated and the canons or statutory provisions allegedly violated;

(b) inform the Respondent ALJ that the investigation may be expanded if appropriate;

(c) invite the Respondent ALJ to respond to the Complaint in writing within 10 working days;

(d) include a copy of the Complaint, the Preliminary Investigation report(s), and any other documentation reviewed in determining whether to authorize a Full Investigation; and R477-101-10. Full Investigative Findings.

Results of the investigation shall be provided to the Chair, who shall determine whether to convene a Committee Meeting.

R477-101-11. Notice.

(1) If after review of the Full Investigative result and findings the Chair determines the Complaint is factually or legally insufficient to establish Misconduct, the Chair shall similarly dismiss the Complaint and take no further action.

(2) If after review of the Full Investigative result and findings the Chair determines the Complaint requires further action, the Chair shall convene the Committee and order a Committee Meeting be scheduled.

(3) After convening the Committee the Chair shall provide Respondent ALJ written notice of the ALJ's right to appear, speak, and present documents at the Committee Meeting. The Chair shall also provide the Respondent ALJ with a copy of the Complaint and the results of the Department's investigation.

(4) Notice that a Committee has been convened and a Committee Meeting ordered shall be made by personal service or certified mail upon the Respondent ALJ or the Respondent ALJ's representative. Service of all other notices or papers may be regular mail.

(5) Within 20 days after receiving written notice from the Chair that a Committee has been convened the Respondent ALJ may provide the Committee a written response to the Complaint.

(6) After receipt of the Respondent ALJ's response or after expiration of the time to respond the Committee shall, in consultation with the ALJ, schedule a Committee Meeting. The Committee shall notify the ALJ in writing of the date, time, and place of the Committee Meeting. Unless continued for Good Cause, Committee Meetings shall be held within four months of the date a Committee is convened on a Complaint.

(7) No later than 20 days before the scheduled Committee Meeting the Chair shall provide the Respondent ALJ with copies of all documents proposed for use at the Committee Meeting or to be relied upon in making its report and recommendation.

(8) Respondent ALJ shall be entitled to representation at every stage of the Committee proceedings or the Committee Meeting.

(9) Neither the Utah Rules of Evidence nor the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure apply in Committee proceedings.

R477-101-13. Committee Meetings.

(1) The Chair shall rule on all motions or objections raised during a Committee Meeting, set reasonable limits on the statements or documents presented, including any statements from the complainant. The Chair may limit the time allowed for the presentation of information, may bifurcate any and all issues to be considered, and may make any and all other rulings regarding any Committee proceeding or Committee Meeting.

(2) To hold a Committee Meeting there must be at least 3 members of the Committee present.

(3) The Respondent ALJ shall be permitted to present information to, make statements and produce witnesses for the Committee's consideration.

(4) Committee members may ask questions of any witness including the Respondent ALJ.

(5) Immediately following the conclusion of the Committee Meeting, the Committee shall deliberate and decide whether there is sufficient evidence the Respondent ALJ violated the Code of Conduct or otherwise engaged in Misconduct. Any such decision shall require a majority vote of the participating Committee members.

(6) Committee decisions shall be supported by a preponderance of the evidence.

(7) Within 30 days of the conclusion of the Committee Meeting, the Chair shall prepare a memorandum decision or report, with a recommendation for any proposed personnel action(s), and shall forward the decision and recommendation to the Respondent ALJ and the agency head of the Respondent ALJ.

(8) After deliberation, if the Committee finds insufficient evidence or reason to determine Misconduct occurred, the complaint shall be dismissed.

R477-101-14. Discipline.

(1) At any time after the commencement of a Full Investigation and before any Committee action, the ALJ may admit to any or all of the allegations in exchange for a stated sanction. The admission shall be submitted to the Committee for a recommendation.

(2) Any corrective and/or disciplinary action taken against a career service employee by the employing agency shall be implemented in accordance with applicable Department or state rule(s) governing discipline.

R477-101-15. Reinstatement of Proceedings.

- (1) Reinstatement upon Request by Complainant.
 - (a) If a Complaint is dismissed, the complainant may, within 20 days of the date of the letter notifying the complainant of the dismissal, file a written request that the Committee reinstate the Complaint. The request shall include the specific grounds upon which reinstatement is sought.
 - (b) The request shall be presented to the Committee at the next available Meeting of the Committee, at which time the Committee shall determine whether to reinstate the Complaint.
 - (c) A determination not to reinstate the Complaint is not reviewable.

- (2) Reinstatement by the Chair.
 - (a) If the Committee dismisses a Complaint, the Chair may, at any time upon the receipt of newly discovered evidence, request that the Committee reinstate the Complaint. The request shall include the specific grounds upon which the reinstatement is sought.
 - (b) The request shall be presented to the Committee at the next available Meeting of the Committee, at which time the Committee shall determine whether to reinstate the Complaint.

R477-101-16. Performance Standard.

- (1) The following minimum performance standards shall apply to all ALJ's:
 - (a) The ALJ shall have no more than one agency disciplinary action or one Committee recommendation for disciplinary action during the ALJ's four-year evaluation cycle; and
 - (b) The ALJ shall receive a satisfactory rating on the survey. A satisfactory rating is achieved when an average of at least 65% of collected responses to survey questions for an ALJ is "Agree". Any survey question with a response of "Not enough information to respond" will not be used when calculating the rating.

- (2) For any question that does not use the "Agree"/"Disagree" response option, the Committee shall establish the minimum performance standard. Any established performance standard shall be substantially equivalent to the standard required by Utah Code Section 67-19e-105.

R477-101-17. Performance Surveys.

(1) The department shall establish and follow a schedule to survey the performance of each ALJ every four years. The schedule shall be staggered to survey the performance of approximately one quarter of all ALJ's each calendar year.

(2) Survey respondents shall include:

- (a) Attorneys who have appeared before the administrative law judge as counsel in the proceeding; and
- (b) Staff who have worked with the administrative law judge.

(3) Additional respondents may include any other persons who have appeared on record before the administrative law judge, including, but not limited to, pro se parties and witnesses.

(3) Survey results shall be maintained by the department and shall not be maintained in the ALJ's personnel file.

(4) Survey results shall be made available to the ALJ's supervisor for consideration in completing annual performance evaluations.

R477-101-18. Training.

Annual, Holiday, and Sick Leave Accrual Table

The following tables provide leave and position schedule information. Annual, holiday, and sick leave shall be accrued at a pro-rated basis in whole hour increments. Annual leave is accrued based on the total number of hours paid in the pay period. Sick leave accrues based on the number of hours paid in the pay period and accrues at a maximum of four (4) hours per pay period for all eligible employees regardless of their years of service. Holiday leave is accrued according to the number of hours paid in the pay period, excluding the holiday hours, and the number of holidays within that pay period. Example: A less than full-time employee is paid 40 hours in the pay period, excluding the holiday hours. He/she will accrue 4 hours if there is one holiday in the pay period. If two holidays fall in the pay period, that same employee will accrue 5 hours for each holiday. Holiday leave is accrued at a maximum of (8) hours per holiday.

Annual leave is accrued based on eligible years of state service.

Less than 5 years	= 4 hours accrual per pay period
At least 5 and less than 10 years	= 5 hours accrual per pay period
At least 10 and less than 20 years	= 6 hours accrual per pay period
20 years or more	= 7 hours accrual per pay period

These would include contributions towards a contributory retirement plan, health and dental premiums, and premiums for voluntary plans such as Metlife Home and Auto and Hyatt Legal. Appendix G

Calculating On-Call Time

On-call pay is calculated at a rate of one hour for every 12 hours that an employee is on-call (maximum of 24 hours), rounded to the nearest two decimal points. If an employee works during the on-call period, then the hours that the employee works is deducted from the on-call hours for which the employee is on-call. Therefore, the following formula should be used to determine on-call.

On-Call Formula:

(# of Hours in the On-Call Period – # of Hours Worked in the On-Call Period) / (12)

On-Call Example:

David is scheduled to be on-call for 24 hours on a Saturday from 12:00am to 11:59pm. David is called to come into work for 5.25 hours to take care of an issue that has come up. Because David worked for 5.25 hours during his on-call period he should deduct those hours from his on-call hours (24 - 5.25 = 18.75 hours of on-call). To figure out the amount that David should be paid he would divide the number of actual hours of on-call by 12 (18.75/12.00= 1.56).

For his on-call period, David will be compensated for 5.25 hours of regular work time and 1.56 hours for the time that he was actually on-call.

$$(24 - 5.25) / (12) = 1.56$$

Note: DHRM rule R477-8-10(a) states that , “An employee may not be in on-call status while using leave or while otherwise unable to respond to a call to duty”. Therefore, this formula doesn’t allow for leave hours to be used and should be deducted from on-call hours. Additionally, this on-call formula adheres to the rounding limits set in the payroll system. If an amount is entered that exceeds the daily limit, an error message will display with the daily limit.
