Governor

Declaration

Whereas, public employees both in all levels of government, namely federal, state, county and city and in all levels of the public education system, ranging from K-12 to vocational training and higher education, provide dedicated service to Utah residents every day;

Whereas, many public employees, including military service personnel, law enforcement officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others, are willing to risk their lives in order to protect the safety of their fellow Americans;

Whereas, public servants also include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, pilots, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, office personnel, and numerous other professionals;

Whereas, these committed professionals and workers deliver myriad critical services to people not only in Utah but across the nation, as well as overseas, in order to help government run smoothly with efficiency and integrity; and

Whereas, all Utah residents are encouraged to recognize and applaud the outstanding accomplishments and contributions of public employees at all levels;

Now, therefore, I, Gary R. Herbert, governor of the state of Utah, do hereby declare
May 1 - 7, 2016, as

Public Service

Recognition Week in Utah
