* Must be an employee of an organization with which Purdue Global has an educational relationship. Eligible family members include spouses, domestic partners, parents, siblings, and children.

† Contact an Admissions Advisor for details. May not be combined with scholarships, grants, military tuition reductions, tuition vouchers, or other discounts or Purdue Global Tuition Cap or ExcelTrack™ pricing.

‡ Not all courses require textbooks; some use electronic instructional materials.

§ Purdue Global does not guarantee transferability of credit from any of these sources. See the University Catalog for the Prior Learning Assessment policy.

Classes count toward a degree if satisfactorily completed. No credits are earned if the student withdraws during the introductory period (3 weeks for new qualifying undergraduate students), which begins day one of the first term. Students who choose to continue their studies at the University will need to meet specific requirements. Graduate programs not included. Additional terms may apply to international and non-U.S. citizen students. For further information, see Catalog.PurdueGlobal.edu and www.PurdueGlobal.edu/About/Risk-Free-Trial. Application fee waived for educational alliance employees.
